

issued a writ of fieri facias upon the said progeny, which writ shall be directed to some constable or other officer, who thereupon shall seize said progeny and sell the same under the provisions of the code of public general laws regulating sales under execution from justices of the peace.

1888, ch. 136, sec. 3.

225. After the expenses attending such sale, and the amount of the lien upon said progeny have been satisfied, the balance, if any, shall be paid to the owner of such progeny sold.

TEMPLEVILLE.

1865, ch. 86.

226. The citizens of the town of Templeville, in Caroline and Queen Anne's counties, are created a body corporate, by the name of the "Commissioners of Templeville," with all the privileges of a body corporate, and a common seal and perpetual succession, and shall be capable in law to sue and be sued, plead and be impleaded, in any court of law or equity, and to make all by-laws necessary for the purposes herein mentioned.

Ibid.

227. The citizens of Templeville shall hold an election on the second Wednesday in August, or as soon thereafter as may be convenient, in each and every year, for seven commissioners, who shall have the management of the town, and shall appoint a bailiff and prescribe his duties; the said bailiff so appointed shall keep or cause to be kept in order, the roads leading to and from the said town of Templeville, for one mile; and the said commissioners shall describe the boundaries of said town, fix the compensation of the bailiff, cause to be assessed and levy and collect a tax on all the taxable property within the limits of said corporation, for the purposes of carrying into effect the preceding section and the improvement of the said town.

Ibid.

228. All persons entitled to vote for delegates to the general assembly of Maryland shall be entitled to vote for commissioners of the said town of Templeville.
